Audio Industry Veteran Bill McKiegan Joins Dan D'Agostino Master Audio Systems

Well-known industry executive rejoins past colleagues to become President of world-renown high-end audio manufacturer

CAVE CREEK, AZ, OCTOBER 1, 2015 — Leading high-end audio manufacturer Dan D'Agostino Master Audio Systems announced today that Bill McKiegan will be joining the company as President, effective immediately.

McKiegan joins Dan D'Agostino Master Audio Systems after five years as President of Krell Industries, the company Dan D'Agostino co-founded in 1980. McKiegan also worked at Krell as Vice President of Sales and Marketing 1994 to 2006.

"We're honored that Bill decided to work with us again," D'Agostino said. "I've worked with him for about a dozen years and known him for more than 20. Bill is easily one of the most talented, resourceful and effective executives in the audio industry, and for him to want to work with us again is the biggest vote of confidence we could imagine."

"Dan and I are very much on the same page when it comes to what a high-end audio company should be," McKiegan said. "It's been inspiring to watch him build Dan D'Agostino Master Audio Systems from just a few product drawings five years ago to being the most acclaimed brand in high-end audio electronics in 2015. I look forward to many great years with this company. We have a lot of great ideas and products in the works, so stay tuned."
